From preschool, to public and charter schools, to homeschool and adult education, 3RsPlus has rigorously researched programs to enable you to reliably teach students to READ and SPELL. Our programs are easy to implement, and they provide immediately transparent results. They are successful with individuals with learning disabilities, dyslexia, attention deficit disorders, and other issues.

More specifically..

What You Can Do

If you are the parent of a preschool-K child:

You can teach your child to read and be in the top group when entering kindergarten or first grade.
